I never had Any where to go
Nothing
I've been here all alone

No one to show me
No one can hear me
Baby just tell me

Till something changes
It's a different language
It's words say too much
and get in the way of me
talking the strangest love

Till something changes
It's a different language
It's words say too much
And get in the way of me
Talking the strangest love
